

PROJECT COPE

Level II Training

April 28-30, 2017

Camp Bowers

Project COPE is an acronym for Challenging Outdoor Personal Experience, a program in the Boy Scouts of America. It consists of group initiative games, trust events, low-course events, and high-course events. Some activities involve a group challenge, while others develop individual skills and agility. Participants climb, swing, balance, jump, rappel, and devise solutions to a variety of problems. The Project COPE program allows each group to have FUN while learning important skills such as: communication, planning, trust, teamwork, leadership, decision-making, problem-solving and self-esteem.

The Cape Fear Council will be offering its COPE Level II Instructors course on April 28 – 30, 2017 at Camp Bowers. This will be an exciting weekend and will be open to the first 10 Scout Leaders who sign up for this course. Your course will begin at Camp Bowers / BB&T Training Center at 6:00 PM sharp on Friday, April 28. Class will end on late on Sunday afternoon. You will actively participate in a weekend long COPE Program and learn the skills to how to lead your troop and others through this personal and challenging experience.

Upon satisfactory completing this COPE Training program, you will receive either COPE Level I or COPE II / Camp Bowers Card (depending on skill & previous experience). This training will allow you to open and lead a COPE & Climbing Tower program for your troop at Camp Bowers.

Cost for this weekend will be $100 per person. All meals (starting Friday evening) and other supplies are included in this cost. Checks can be made out to Cape Fear Council and paid at the Council Offices. All sign ups must be turned into the Council Office no later than 5:00 PM on Friday, April 28. No exceptions allowed.
